“Skill Development Programme for FAEA Scholars during 25.12.2011 to 03.01.2012”

The ninth 'National Level Workshop on Skill Facilitation' was organized by Jaipur National University (JNU) in collaboration with the Foundation for Academic Excellence and Access (FAEA) and the Tata Group of Companies during 25th December 2011 to 3rd January 2012 at the JNU Campus, Jaipur. The workshop was organized for bright students from the socially and economically marginalized groups to enable them to pursue higher education in an institution of their choice anywhere in the country.

The ten day workshop was primarily designed to instill a sense of positive attitude and zeal in them to achieve success. The workshop was planned to motivate students, to develop the potential of FAEA scholars, strengthen their ability to achieve excellence and offer them better prospects for a brighter future to achieve excellence and professional competence so that they become exemplary leaders to the society and the nation with high moral and ethical values. Since the scholars lacked linguistic competence, the workshop basically aimed at sessions on Personality Development, Career Placement, Communication Skills, Stress Management and so on.

The workshop began on 25th December, 2011 in JNU with about fifty students from different parts of the country. The workshop was inaugurated by the Chief Guest, Honorable Dr. Adarsh Kishor, Honorable Chancellor Mr. Sandeep Bakshi (JNU), Vice Chancellor Prof K L Sharma, besides them Prof. A.K Panda, Prof. Yadav, and Prof H N Verma (JNU) also graced the occasion. The program began around 9.30am with the guests lighting the lamp.

The sessions were so designed as to enable students to increase their potential for self esteem, to develop in participants a global, secular, rational and social outlook, to prepare the students to be creative problem solvers and leaders, and become persons of distinction. To achieve these objectives sessions were designed to enhance communicative skills to make them confident and effective team players, and orient students to various career options, growth paths and to provide them with IT skills.

To conduct the sessions eminent resource persons were invited to hold the sessions on various topics mentioned below. All the sessions were interactive sessions where the students made presentations at the end. A system was responsibility to achieve the targets. The participants were then given access to the computers where they prepared PowerPoint presentation.

7. Alumni Association

The need to setup an Alumni Association emerged from the needs expressed by the FAEA scholars that the programme has made a real difference in their lives. They have expressed a desire to maintain contact with the organization and contribute in whatever ways they can. Networking among 230 FAEA scholars through an Alumni Association has been achieved this year. We look forward to an active relationship with Alumni to facilitate the consolidation of the identity of the foundation. The association is also expected to create a strong sense of involvement among the students. Further the foundation would like to help students define their goals and achieve new standards in their academic careers. The foundation organises alumni meet to reconnect with the students. We had our last Alumni meet in January 2009 and we hope to organize another next year.

It is heartening to note that our Alumni have also started contributing to FAEA funds in their own way. We also look forward to their greater participation and patronage in the future.

“FAEA has been helping poor and deprived bright student to build their future and prepare them to stand before the big challenges in academic life. I am very fortunate to be a FAEA scholar. Hope this foundation will continue its outstanding service in future also to help the needy student”

Vinod Kumar Ahirwar

“Your organization's mission of helping bright students with low family background is really appreciable and making many talented children to come up.”

Naveen Kumar K

9. Search of Additional Resources

Our experience of intervening in the area of the higher education since 2002, convinces FAEA that it is certainly possible to expand the scope and reach of the Programme. The success of the programme since the inception has been through the magnanimous and generous support from the Ford Foundation. The renewal of this grant has had its significant positive implications to sustain the momentum of FAEA and turn the momentum into a lofty movement.

The various stakeholders so far – students, associate colleges, educationists - all desire that FAEA momentum be converted into a national movement. The same also requires tremendous monetary support from well meaning institutions.

So FAEA has launched massive crusade to mobilize additional resources for its scholarship project. It has invited Foundations, Institutions and Corporate houses to be partner and join it in the evolution of empowered through Excellence and Value PLUS citizens/professionals.

FAEA has invites generous contributions for this great task by forging:

- Endowments,
- National Scholarships,
- Associate College Scholarships, and
- Project Based Grants.

Contributions are exempted from Income Tax under section 80G of the I.T. Act. FAEA is also registered with the Ministry of Home Affairs for receiving contribution from abroad under the Foreign Contribution (Regulations) Act, 1976 (FCRA)

FAEA has a firm conviction that when all those interested in the upliftment and advancement of the marginalized sections are imbued with a spirit of commitment and dedicated work, and a new innovative system of education evolves as it is happening currently in FAEA, the outcome in terms of access, equity and excellence, can be profound.

Carving Newer Landscapes

We are grateful to Tatas, CII and other organisations as well as individuals who have contributed generously to sustain this movement. We are also grateful to our alumni who have started contributing to the general fund. For FAEA to systematically weave in its promising practices and processes into the very fabric of the education system it wishes to impact, requires magnanimous support from the corporate sector of India. FAEA believes the tangible outcomes through corporate partnership is expected to pave way for greater participation in higher education, which nurtures young, future leaders as the potential shapers of India's destiny.

Higher education in India is passing through a period of profound transformation. A collective vision through NGO-Corporate Partnership can propel innovations in the public education systems where the masses study. FAEA's expertise in issues of higher education opens up trails for potential partnerships with corporate organizations who aspire to contribute to the changing discourse on social justice in higher education. FAEA's alternative vision for social justice in higher education can be leveraged effectively by corporate partners. FAEA hopes that the corporate world would be co-travelers in its journey to create a common language of citizenship with individuals securing their rights.

In choosing to collectively take the road less traveled, FAEA invites the Corporate Sector to help usher in a world waiting to be born, a world where education without barriers and a future without limits spurs us on to newer horizons.
